

Laner Muchin Attorney Violet M. Clark Presented at the 2018 National Aging Services Risk Management Conference

10.18.2018

Chicago, IL – Laner Muchin attorney Violet Clark presented at the 2018 National Aging Services Risk Management conference on October 17, 2018 in Chicago.

Clark's presentation focused on the importance of having and following policies and procedures. In addition, she began to unravel the legal issues surrounding the interplay between the Family and Medical Leave Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act and Workers' Compensation laws.

Clark collaborates with CEOs and their management teams to design strategies to ensure their businesses achieve their goals regarding all aspects of human resources management and avoid labor and employment liability. She has more than three decades of experience representing for profit and non-profit companies of all sizes and industries and working with and for government and regulatory bodies from local to federal.

About NASRM

The annual National Aging Services Risk Management (NASRM) conference educates attendees on quality, risk management, and culture of safety in long-term care, senior care and housing, and aging services organizations. Caring Communities and the Peace Church Risk Retention Group (PCRRG), in partnership with ECRI Institute, explore and disseminate best practices in identifying and managing risks, becoming a high-reliability
