

Terminology puts end to age bias suit

Joe Gagliardo & Brian Jackson
Chicago Daily Law Bulletin
02.04.2019

Section 623(a)(1) of the Age Discrimination in Employment Act contains protections against employment practices that are facially discriminatory when applied to “individuals” who are 40 years of age or older — practices that result in disparate treatment.

Attorneys

Joseph M. Gagliardo
Brian K. Jackson

Practice Areas

Counseling and Transactional
Labor Management
Relations