

Matthew P. Kellam Provided a Legal Update at the Illinois Association of Chiefs of Police's Annual Conference

04.29.2019

Chicago, IL – Laner Muchin attorney Matthew P. Kellam recently presented at the 2019 Annual Training Conference hosted by the Illinois Association of Chiefs of Police on April 24-26, 2019 in Oak Brook, Illinois.

Kellam participated in an interactive session offering information on the most recent legal issues facing law enforcement. This included labor issues, use of force, fitness for duty, etc.

Kellam has an extensive employment litigation practice, defending lawsuits in federal and state courts, representing both private and public sector clients. He litigates cases involving discrimination, harassment, and retaliation claims, FMLA and ADA claims, Section 1983 and United States Constitutional claims, Illinois Whistleblower Act and common law retaliatory discharge claims, and common law claims, such as defamation, tortious interference with contract and civil conspiracy claims.

About Illinois Association of Chiefs of Police (ILACP)

The ILACP is Illinois' Voice of Professional Law Enforcement. Established in 1941, ILACP represents over 1,200 members working in over 450 agencies throughout the State.

Firm Profile

Laner Muchin Ltd. concentrates in the representation of employers in labor relations, employment litigation, employee benefits and business immigration matters. The firm provides legal services to clients from coast

Attorneys

Matthew P. Kellam

Practice Areas

Counseling and Transactional

Private and Public Sector
Employment Litigation

Matthew P. Kellam Provided a Legal Update at the Illinois Association of Chiefs of Police's Annual Conference

to coast. For more information on our firm and our services, visit www.lanermuchin.com.