Andrew S. Goldberg

Laner Muchin is delighted to announce that Managing Partner Andrew Goldberg has been elected to the College of Labor and Employment Lawyers as a new Fellow in 2022. Selection as a Fellow is the highest honor one can receive from their colleagues, indicating exemplary performance in the industry and demonstrating integrity and excellence within the legal profession.

“It is a privilege to have been nominated by my colleagues and, ultimately, chosen as a Fellow,” Andy said. “I will continue to embody the values promoted by the College as I strive to always provide the exceptional service that our clients expect.”

The induction of new Fellows will take place November 12, 2022, in Washington, D.C. The annual dinner is traditionally held alongside the American Bar Association’s Labor and Employment Law Section’s Continuing Legal Education Conference. The College is currently represented by more than 1,600 members across 46 states, D.C., Puerto Rico and eight Canadian provinces.

The College of Labor and Employment Lawyers is a product resulting from the vision of several current Fellows. The goal of the organization is to promote achievement, advancement, and excellence in the practice by setting standards of professionalism and serving as a resource for academia, the government, the judiciary, and the community at large. The College was established in 1995 through an initiative of the Council of The Section of Labor and Employment Law of the American Bar Association. It
