

Laner Muchin Partners Rob Bernstein, Heather Becker and Antonio Caldarone to Address Case Law Updates and COVID-19 Issues at the 2021 IICLE Employment Law Institute Annual Conference

04.22.2021

Laner Muchin Partner Rob Bernstein will serve as a co-moderator with Kathryn Hartrick and also present on recent employment law court decisions at the 2021 IICLE Employment Law Institute virtual annual conference on April 22, 2021. Laner Muchin Partners Heather Becker and Antonio Caldarone will also present a COVID-19 update at the conference, focusing on the legal and practical issues for employers surrounding COVID-19 vaccinations and return to work considerations.

The annual employment law conference will feature a diverse group of experienced employment counsel from the plaintiff, defense and in-house counsel perspectives and will offer practical and timely advice on how to manage and comply with quickly evolving employment law changes. Additional topics that will be covered at this conference will include expected labor and employment changes from the Biden administration, wage and hour updates, leave of absence issues, remote investigations and a race and ethics panel discussion.
