

Attorneys

Laner Muchin recruits quality, attorney candidates on a national basis. Our recruiting efforts have been highly successful because we can provide opportunities to handle challenging responsibilities and exciting projects; we have highly competitive salaries and benefits; we have an informal, unpretentious office atmosphere; and we have a proven record of elevating associates to partnership.

In summary, Laner Muchin provides an excellent opportunity for a rewarding career in labor and employment law.

January 2022

Laner Muchin is seeking a commercial litigation attorney to work on a broad range of matters at the firm.

The ideal candidate will have exceptional analytical, communication, drafting and other litigation skills and experience with matters in Illinois State and Federal courts through all phases of litigation, including pleadings, motions, discovery, expert development and trial.

Please contact Amber Cox for more information.